

Tuxedo Art and Music Plein Air Event June 16-20, 2021

Discover and celebrate the beauty and spirit of Tuxedo's historic town and parklands. Artists will have the opportunity to capture inspiring vistas and landmarks that have long defined this iconic region. Some of the many scenic opportunities awaiting artistic interpretation include beautiful hidden landscapes in Sterling Forest, Harriman Park, and historic architectural landmarks throughout Tuxedo.

Guided by a virtual map, artists, residents, art, and nature lovers can create their own adventure throughout the town to discover and explore.

Painting will take place from June 16th-18th, culminating in a "Meet the Artist" Exhibit and Reception at the Tuxedo Train Station on Friday, June 18th. Artists' work will remain on display and for sale during the Farmer's Market and throughout the weekend.

Open to all Plein Air artists throughout the Hudson Valley, limited space is available and participants are on a first-come basis.
