

The Tuxedo Park Library Art on Display presents

Sarah McHugh

“Spring Awakenings and Then Some”

May 1st through June

Artist's Reception

Sunday, May 15th

from 12-2pm

Award winning artist Sarah McHugh is ever inspired by the beauty of the Hudson Valley. Using diverse mediums, Sarah preserves nature, light, and seemingly ordinary moments into visual expressions that enrich the viewer's soul.

Sarah's work has been exhibited in New York, throughout the Hudson Valley, and hangs in private collections across the country.
