

Tuxedo Park Library

Week of October 25th

Movie Afternoon
Wednesday, October 27th
4pm

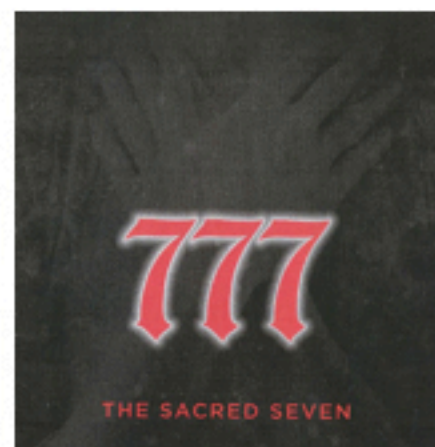

How to Train Your Dragon Rated PG

A grown up must accompany children under 5 and remain during the movie presentation.

The Tarotree
Presented by Linda Urcioli
Thursday, October 28th
7pm

Journey the TREE OF LIFE, and learn the meaning of the ancient Emanations. Those magical whirling spheres, which describes the myth behind the Hebrew people and their Kabala. The Tarot will be explained through the 22 sacred letters, as they connect to the 22 cards of the Major Arcana. When you begin to grasp the basics of this ancient system, you will begin to understand yourself and the world around you.

Seating is limited. Call the Library to register.

REGISTER FOR

Beginner's Facebook Workshop
Wednesday,
November 10th & 17th
1pm

Heather Wright-Porto, author of Beginning Google Blogger, will show you how to create a Facebook account, set up your profile/security settings, and go over the ins and outs of the application. She will be available after each session to answer questions and for hands-on support.

Seating is limited. Call the Library to register.

Tuxedo Park Library

227 Rt. 17
Tuxedo Park, NY 10987
845-351-2207

www.tuxedoparklibrary.org
tuxpl@rcls.org