

Editorial Independence and Donor Transparency Policy

TPFYI adheres to standards of editorial independence promulgated by the Institute for Nonprofit News. Our organization retains full authority over editorial content to protect the best journalistic and business interests of our organization. We maintain a firewall between news coverage decisions and sources of all revenue. Acceptance of financial support does not constitute implied or actual endorsement of donors or their products, services or opinions.

TPFYI accepts donations from individuals and organizations for the general support of our activities, but our news judgments are made independently and not on the basis of donor support.

Although TPFYI may occasionally consider donations to support the coverage of particular topics, we will always maintain editorial control of all of our coverage. TPFYI will never cede any right of review or influence of editorial content, nor of unauthorized distribution of editorial content.

TPFYI is committed to transparency in its operations and finances and accordingly will recognize on our site all donors who give a total of $1000 or more per year. We will accept anonymous donations for general support only if it is clear that sufficient safeguards have been put into place that the expenditure of any such donation is made independently by TPFYI.
