

Tuxedo Outside the Gates 1900 -1950

A brief history of the residential and business area of Tuxedo now called the “Hamlet” - known until about 1950 as the “Village”

The years 1900-1950 saw many changes in the area outside Tuxedo Park's main gate. Lifelong Tuxedo resident and Town Historian George Langberg will use multiple maps, diagrams, and photos to describe these changes, many of which are known to very few current Tuxedoites, including those who have lived here for all or most of their lives.
