
Pet Food Available for People Needing Support for Companion Animals

The Hudson Valley Humane Society (aka Rockland County SPCA) has a limited amount of surplus pet food to provide to people in need. We are reaching out to identify those in need of food for pets due to financial hardship resulting from the Coronavirus outbreak. The HVHS has been a member of our community since 1891 and we have been through challenges before and are always willing to help when we can. If you need help, please contact Maureen via text at 1.917.617.0284 or via email at mrcoen@optonline.net.
