

Please join us on Saturday July 28, 2018 at a ceremony followed by lunch to inaugurate the new North Entrance of the Race Track Nature Preserve and to honor the Meadow Stewards

At East Lake Stable Road, junction with Clubhouse Road
(opposite Fox Hill Trail)

10.30 AM Tour of the Nature Preserve to see the newly-seeded areas and returning native plants after the removal of the invasives

11.30 AM Inauguration and Dedication Ceremony

12.00 Noon Lunch at Hoffman Carriage Barn 32 East Lake Stable Road

RSVP racetrackfriends@gmail.com

Newly-created original herbarium artwork and Mae Shore's limited-edition print, Native Meadow, will be on exhibition and sale

Stone seat at the Witch-hazel overlook, North Entrance

The ongoing restoration work and planting at the Race Track Nature Preserve have been made possible by the generous donations of the Meadow Stewards, adding to the support of the Founding Stewards in conserving the environmental health, biodiversity and rustic beauty of our Village for generations to come.

The following individuals and families will be acknowledged as Meadow Stewards on a bronze plaque at the North Entrance:

The Aaron Family
Paul Brooke and Kathleen McCarragher
Jennifer and James Cacioppo
Joan Gow
Chiu Yin and Gardiner Hempel
Anne and Sean Madden
Merrill and Christopher Mahan

Carol and Benjamin Monderer
Carol Ann and Alexander Nicholson
Felix Nunes Sanchez
Julia and Jeff Simer
Claudia and Carey Turnbull
Clara and Ted Wang
List in formation

The Founding Stewards are recognized on the South Entrance dedication plaque.
Visit www.tptreeboard.org for a complete list of Stewards.

If you are interested in supporting our cause, the Friends of the Race Track Nature Preserve want to hear from you racetrackfriends@gmail.com

Limited number of mounted and framed Herbaria (13" x 17" including frame) available with a $150 donation. Courtesy of Christopher Gow.

Left image: examples of the framed original botanical art.
For more information: racetrackfriends@gmail.com

Native Meadow, limited-edition woodblock print by Mae Shore (25" x 19" including frame) available with a $500 donation.
Courtesy of Cheymore Gallery.