* NEWS ****

St. Mary's Yard Sale

St Mary's is holding a Yard Sale of clothing, toys, books, sports equipment, decorative items, kitchen equipment, and furniture. The money made will benefit the Aids orphans we support in South Africa and local families in need. The funds will be divided 50/50. At the same time, local families will be able to buy everything at very reasonable prices. Items for sale [in workable and clean condition] can be left at St Mary's at any time from now until October 22nd during office hours, 9am to 1pm, or at the Tuxedo Train Station on Friday October 22nd, from 11am to 4 pm.
Please contact Sue Heywood on 351 3473 if you have items to donate, otherwise come and buy on Saturday!

The Tuxedo Park School is selling their homemade dog biscuits!
All proceeds go to helping furry friends in need!!!
Come show your support!

Market Reminders

You will notice that we have expanded the market area. Please use the parking lot south of the train station or if you don't mind a short walk, use the lower commuter lot at the north end of the train station, just over the rail road tracks. The north end of the parking lot is no longer available because of all the new vendors this season.

Please visit our website for directions and a full list of vendors. Don't forget to forward the Tuxedo Farmers' Market Newsletter to interested family and friends, and stop by the Market Manager's tent with any questions or suggestions regarding the Tuxedo Farmers' Market.

Rain or shine, come on down to the renovated Tuxedo, NY Train Station every Saturday from 9AM-2PM to purchase the finest local products!

We look forward to seeing you this Saturday!

Sincerely,

The Tuxedo Farmers' Market
